

For Immediate Release

Baca County Economic Development Commission

Laneha Everett, Secretary

Laneha.everett@hotmail.com

Business Resources Available at the Baca County Library

Books on business start-up, marketing, running a business, as well as information for local business resources are available at the Baca County Library in Springfield. These resources were made available by the library, and have been put in their own section to the left of the library entrance. The books and resources are available to be read and used at the library and not for check out. Please ask Beulah Collins if you need assistance in locating this resource section.